PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Mr. Golden is a senior partner and co-founder of the firm, and has been both a practicing lawyer and a real estate developer and businessman. Prior to the formation of the firm, he served as a partner and head of the real estate practice group in the San Antonio office of Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer & Feld, LLP for more than 15 years. Prior to that, Mr. Golden served as executive vice president and general counsel to a privately-held real estate company that developed a 5,000-acre planned community in San Antonio, owned and operated a water company, and acquired, developed and sold residential, office and retail projects throughout Texas. He also served as president of another San Antonio-based real estate company and was responsible for the acquisition, development, finance and sale of numerous retail and office projects. In addition, Mr. Golden has also served as president of a movie theater company involved in the acquisition and development of multi-screen theater projects in various parts of the United States. He began his legal career as a real estate lawyer with the firm of Matthews, Nowlin, Macfarlane & Barrett (later succeeded by Matthews & Branscomb) where he left as a partner in 1984.

DETAILS OF PRACTICE

Mr. Golden primarily represents sophisticated private, public and institutional parties in the acquisition, development, leasing, financing, operation and sale of all types of commercial properties, including retail, industrial, office, multi-family, hotel and resort properties. He also regularly negotiates and drafts complex organizational agreements for limited partnerships, limited liability companies, corporations and joint ventures, as well as economic development agreements. He serves as primary outside real estate counsel to the largest privately-owned supermarket company in the United States, for which he is regularly involved in the negotiation of lease, acquisition, partnership, development and reciprocal operating and easement agreements; and to the industrial logistics group of the real estate investment arm of one of the nation's largest insurance companies, for which he is regularly involved in the negotiation of joint venture, lease, development and development management agreements.
